August 28, 2016

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Back to School!

By now we should all be back to school. Kids have figured out their new schedules and teachers. Parents have figured out new routines. Teachers are beginning to execute their finely tuned lesson plans. It's all very exciting. And what is most exciting about it?

Discipline.

I know that this might sound crazy, but humor me for just a moment.

When we think of discipline in a school setting, I am sure that one of two things come to mind. We either think of "being disciplined" as a punishment for some infraction against the student handbook or because of some behavior, or we think about the different disciplines we study, like math, science, or language. But that is not what discipline is about.

The word discipline comes from the same word as disciple. It means to follow in the training of another. As Christians this has a very special meaning for us. To be a disciple of Jesus is to follow what he teaches, and to do that we have to get to know him better.

This new school year is a reminder to all of us that even if we've made First Communion, or have been Confirmed, or graduated, that to be a Christian is to be a disciple. We are all meant to continue our formation, knowing Jesus and following in His ways. We are together in the journey of discipleship.

May we all be as excited to be on this journey together as the Kindergarten students are to be in school.

- Fr. Chris

Reflections on the Readings

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time taken from St. Joseph Sunday Missal.

First Reading--Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

"Humble yourself....and you will find favor with God." The writer of Sirach is a keen observer of his fellow humans. People addicted to pride, full of pretensions, are like actors who constantly play the roles of other characters but never their own. They cannot be great in God's eyes.

Humble persons know that they depend entirely on God. "God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor (me)"

Second Reading--Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

The Old Testament imagery for the greatness of God consists of clouds, fire, storm, angels, blasting trumpets, thunder, and lightning. This imagery is lavishly used at the manifestation of God on Mount Sinai. People were warned not to break through toward the Lord in order to see him. They might be struck down.

The author of Hebrews refers to this theophany (manifestation of God) and compares it with the theophany on Mount Zion, located in heaven, where we will see God without trembling and fear. But coming to this mountain in heaven, meeting God there face to face and partaking in his banquet is granted only to the humble.

Gospel--Luke 14:1, 7-14

Jesus relates a parable and an exhortation to his host. The parable is not just a lesson in good table manners. Rather, it refers to the Messianic Banquet of the end-time. Attendance depends on the invitation of God. And only those who are humble and in need of salvation will be there.

Are you self-sufficient or in need of God? The exhortation to the host suggests that our acceptance of fellow humans now has something to do with our own acceptance at the Messianic Banquet later.

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD: Children's Liturgy of the Word is a ministry that continues to grow each year. It is held during the 10:30 am Mass, from September to May. With the number of children attending each week, I will need at least 2 or 3 adult leaders each week. I would like to have the mothers of the children attending to volunteer to help at least one Sunday a month. If this is something you might be interested in helping with, please call Barb Pifher at 419-347-2381. If I have no one to do it on a particular Sunday, then the children miss out on hearing God's word and how to apply it to their lives.

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is a journey that allows those who might wish to grow in their faith and those who might be looking to become Catholic to inquire and explore. Sessions will be starting in September! If you would like to just update your faith or know of someone who might be interested at looking at the faith, call Barb Pifher at 419-347-2381, day and evening classes are available. There is no commitment during this process...just to look and explore.

J-O-Y (Just Older Youth) will meet on September 8th, at 9:45 am, in the lower level meeting room. It is the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We will be watching Mary of Nazareth. A special 2-DVD on the life of Mary, mother of Christ, from her childhood through the Resurrection of Jesus. Coffee and donuts will be provided. J-O-Y (Just Older Youth) is for anyone 55 and older, however, everyone is welcome to come and watch the Christian movies.

FISH COLLECTION: Next weekend is our FISH collection. Please bring in any donations of non-perishable items and place them in the boxes. Be careful to only donate foods that are not outdated on the labels. HelpLine cannot put outdated items in food boxes that are provided for those in need. Thank you for your cooperation.

The HelpLine is in special need of saltine crackers. Please consider bringing them as part of your donation in the FISH collection next weekend. Crackers can be brought to the HelpLine through the week also.

Our Parish School News

A note from the Principal

The School year at St. Mary's School has commenced and I would like to take the opportunity to welcome everyone. Education can be likened to the Wild Wild West and this year, we challenge our students to explore as far as they can and expand their minds. I appeal to the students, the families, the parish and the teachers to ride on this journey together.

The teachers at St. Mary's School are taking action and helping the students to achieve academic, spiritual, physical, moral and social learning. May I take this opportunity to thank all the teachers and staff for their continued professionalism, excellence and dedication. It is teacher commitment and motivation in the classroom that will help to create a year that is bright. Also a special thank you goes to our parish members and staff who continue to pray and support us.

This year, the Parent Teacher Organization continues to tirelessly take action to help raise funds for St. Mary's School. Please help and support this effort. In addition the School Council will continue to take action to help strategically plan towards ensuring the future for our School.

This year, families we thank you, for choosing our school and we ask you to GET involved. You are expected to help with events such as the Bazaar & Spring Fling, trips, and fundraisers. Bring your ideas and opinions to PTO. Communicate with our staff to help your students thrive.

However, even more importantly, the students themselves will have to take action to further their education. Our young ladies and gentlemen too are beginning to realize the importance of self-motivation and are preparing to help themselves. By Jingo you're right, you must help yourselves so that ultimately you can help others. Each young lady and gentleman here today, in their own way, will need to help. You will need to help your family and church. You will need to have faith in God when sense and reason go missing. You will need to help solve problems through innovation and invention. You will need to help the environment, and you will need to help turn indifference into motivated, helpful action.

This is our goal as the year at St. Mary's School commences! Let's continue to work together to have a rootin' tootin' time and help each other!

Thank you to all who joined us for our School Open House and Family Orientation this past Sunday. We had a great turnout. Decorations were themed Western and kids were delighted with their rooms. All volunteers who prepared, served and cleaned up are very much appreciated. Funds were raised for 6th Grade Mohican Outdoor School Experience.

St. Mary's school welcomes volunteers to help our students. However our first priority is kid's safety. Therefore all volunteers must go through a screening process called Virtus along with training called "Protecting God's Children". Please visit this website <http://www.virtusonline.org/virtus/> to complete 72 hours prior to volunteering or driving for field trips etc. The cost is $25. This cost can be covered for you by contacting the business manager, Barb Studer at 419-347-2381 or bstuder@stmaryshelby.org.

Thank you.
